

Footwear

For over 70 years Dubarry has been associated with producing high quality footwear... and it's the craftsmanship, quality and style that lies at the heart of our success.

Of course, the principle reason our footwear lasts so well is the exceptional level of quality that we achieve and you expect. It's no mean achievement however, which is why we put such a huge amount of time and skill into developing our footwear. Dubarry boots and shoes are recognised the world over and worn by those that appreciate the best.
